

EXPLOSION WRECKS BAKERY, KITCHEN AND LUNCH ROOM

Two Employees Are Buried in Ruins and Customers Swept From Stools.

A gas explosion to-day demolished the one-story bakery and wrecked the adjoining kitchen and lunch room of Leon Klein, No. 33 Third Avenue, burying two employees in the ruins. Martin Ruboncar, of No. 176 East 17th Street, the baker, was out in the one-story rear extension where the bake oven was situated, cleaning the pans for baking, when the explosion hurled him through the roof. He fell back and was buried in the ruins.

The force of the blast moved toward the building front, sweeping violently through the kitchen, where Frances Dohmstich, of No. 184 Second Avenue, was preparing the soup. She was pinned against the door to the lunch room in a mass of kettles and kitchen furnishings, covered with a tidal wave of soup.

Continuing through the lunch room, the force of the explosion blew a few lunchers from their stools, swept the dishes from the counter and blew out the front windows. The sound of the blast was heard two blocks away.

Policeman Kelly called the firemen and dug out Ruboncar, who was taken by Dr. Frost to Bellevue Hospital with a broken leg, internal injuries and possible fracture of the skull. Frances Dohmstich could not be reached until Eleanor Martineff, of No. 383 East 42d Street, crawled through the debris and dragged her out.

KEUHLING TRIES TO ESCAPE.

Was Held as Witness in Drowning of Wife—Got Tired, He Says.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Roy H. Keuhling, who is held by the police as a witness in connection with the drowning of his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Viger Keuhling, part heir to a million dollar estate in Detroit, attempted to escape last night from a precinct police station. He was detained in a witness room and had removed a panel from the room door when the police discovered his attempt. Questioned by the officers he was said by them to have declared that he was tired of being detained.

A Grand Jury investigation of the death of Mrs. Keuhling was begun to-day.

NO TEACHERS—NO SCHOOL.

Shortage Closes 100 Institutions of Learning in New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 14.—The shortage of teachers in New Jersey has prevented the opening of 100 schools in the State, according to a statement issued to-day by Commissioner of Education Calvin Kendall. The number would have been larger if the local boards throughout the State had not increased salaries, the statement continued.

UNADULTERATED

Good health depends upon what you drink and eat. To enjoy the best of health you must select pure liquids and pure foods. Any family physician will so advise.

When it comes to selecting a pure, unadulterated, invigorating drink containing a little alcoholic substance, every Chemist who knows anything about a good wholesome brew will tell you that one of the best that was ever brewed is

JACOB RUPPERT'S Knickerbocker

The Brew That Satisfies

Knickerbocker is a genuine brewery product containing all the best that can possibly be extracted from pure hop and barley malt. It is aged and matured in the same vessels and by the same methods that made it justly famous years ago.

Knickerbocker is a pasteurized brew. Every drop of water used in the making is filtered, every vessel and bottle is sterilized; otherwise the brew could not be classed as a genuine, unadulterated brewery product.

Comb Sage Tea in Faded or Gray Hair

If Mixed with Sulphur it
Darkens So Naturally
Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded, streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it assumes its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Advt.
